Otterbein faculty/staff went above and beyond!

"The professors were prompt in their response to questions. All the staff answered my questions and if they could not, they referred me to someone who could. The professors offered encouragement and made their students feel special and valued."

"The Graduate School at Otterbein University provided an excellent learning and collaborative environment. The knowledge I gained at Otterbein University gave me the confidence I needed to start my own business and I cannot say enough good things about the program."
